City of Palm Springs

CALIFORNIA

Whereas, in recent years, the Palm Springs Preservation Foundation has sponsored numerous Class 1 Historic Site Nominations for residential and commercial buildings throughout the City of Palm Springs; and

Whereas, PSPF has also sponsored historic district nominations for Racquet Club Cottages West (1959-60, William Cody), Pompeii de Las Palmas (1964, architect unknown), and Sandcliff Garden Apartment Homes (1964, Sherwin L. Barton); and

Whereas, PSPF has also aggressively advocated for the preservation or sympathetic rehabilitation of a number of buildings in the city including Tahquitz Plaza, LaSerena Villas, the Welwood Murray Memorial Library, the Town & Country Center, the Community Church of Palm Springs, the Orchid Tree Inn, the Racquet Club and many others; and

Whereas, through its neighborhood grant program, the foundation has funded architectural restoration programs and homeowners association initiatives throughout the city.

Now, Therefore, I, Robert Moon, Mayor of the City of Palm Springs, California, hereby recognize the Palm Springs Preservation Foundation for having a profoundly positive effect on the understanding and appreciation of Palm Springs' architecture, and by the power vested in me, do hereby proclaim the 17th day of February, 2016 to be:

Palm Springs Preservation Foundation Day
